CLARK'S CORNERS

Wednesday morning, September 14, Mrs. Fannie E. Jewett, wife of Allen Jewett, died peacefully at her home here after a long illness, although it was only since June, that she was not able to be about the house as usual. Mr. and Mrs. Jewett had celebrated their golden wedding anniversary at their home here December 13, 1916.

In her early life, Mrs. Jewett was a nurse and will long be remembered for her tender ministrations to the sick, also for her charity to those in need.

There was never a storm too severe for her to brave, could she be of service to her neighbor or friends. In the community, and in the vicinity round about, she was fondly called Mother Jewett.

She was an ideal home-maker, and her home was ever open to all from far and near, and many enjoyed her hospitality. By those who knew her best, she will be sincerely mourned as a devoted wife and mother and loyal friend.

The poem which she selected to be read at her funeral, entitled "The Home-Maker," was typical of her life. She is survived by her husband, Allen Jewett, two sons, Wallace N. Jewett of Hampton, and Elmer C. Jewett of Clark's Corner, a daughter, Mrs. Viola I. Clark, also of this place, and an adopted daughter, Mrs. Ernest F. James, of Warrenville. There are two grandchildren, also four brothers and five sisters. The funeral services were held Saturday, September 17th, relatives and friends attending. Rev. Walter E. Langham of Clark's Corner conducted the service. A quartette sang. When the hymn "Have Thine Own Way, O Lord" was sung, Mrs. Jewett's two sons, Elmer C. Jewett, and four nephews, Chester and William Jewett, and Harry and Fred Robbins.

White Rose COFFEE

New York's Own Drink

COFFEE to the New Yorker is a drink that either irritates or satisfies because he recognizes instantly the least falling off of strength or flavor.

Most of his life he has been a coffee drinker—New York is a coffee-drinking city—and this intensive training has made him an exacting judge of good coffee.

Our long experience in packing coffee has taught us that you cannot sell the New Yorker ordinary coffee. So we packed White Rose Coffee specially to meet New York's discriminating coffee taste.

You can't help noticing the man who comes down to the office in the morning with roddy cheeks and clear sparkling eyes—full of energy, and eager for the tasks of the day.

He is physically "fit"—and can do twice the amount of work the average person can do, without becoming fatigued.

If you go out to lunch with this man you'll notice that probably he avoids coffee, though he may drink Postum—the well-known and delicious beverage, coffee-like in flavor.

This is the secret of his superb health. He isn't putting the drugs from coffee or tea into his system three times every day. As a consequence he sleeps like a healthy baby all night. His sleep refreshes and rests him. He has perfect control of his nerves.

Do not delay another day in starting back on the road to robust health. The rich, coffee-like flavor of Postum will surprise and please you.

Order Postum from your Grocer today. Drink this hot, refreshing beverage in place of tea or coffee for ten days and see what a wonderful difference it will make in the way you feel.

Postum comes in two forms: Instant Postum (in tins) made instantly in the cup by the addition of boiling water. Postum Cereal (in packages of larger bulk, for those who prefer to make the drink while the meal is being prepared) made by boiling for 20 minutes.
